TERRACON — PATHWAYS, PEOPLE + WORK IN ACTION

Career Exploration · Workplace Observation · Skills · Questions · Evidence

ESSENTIAL QUESTION

What can I learn about careers by seeing how real people, roles, skills and systems work together?

THIS WEEK

You are visiting Terracon to learn how work actually happens inside a professional organization.

Do not treat this as a tour.

Treat it as an investigation.

Your job is to notice:

- the different roles inside one organization
- how people enter those roles
- what education, credentials or experience may be required
- what technical skills matter
- what human skills matter
- how people communicate and collaborate
- how work moves from one person or team to another
- how technology supports the work
- what career possibilities you did not know existed

PART 1 · WHAT DO I THINK TERRACON DOES?

Before the visit, write what you believe Terracon does.

_____

What industries or types of work do you think connect to Terracon?

FUTURE READY™ PASSPORT EVIDENCE

Save:

ONE ROLE I DISCOVERED

_____

ONE PATHWAY I LEARNED ABOUT

_____

ONE TECHNICAL SKILL

_____

ONE HUMAN SKILL

_____

ONE WORKPLACE OBSERVATION

_____

ONE PROFESSIONAL I LEARNED FROM

_____

ONE CAREER POSSIBILITY I WANT TO INVESTIGATE

_____

ONE QUESTION I STILL HAVE

_____

CAPSTONE CONNECTION

Keep:

- one role you did not know existed
- one pathway you discovered
- one technical skill
- one human skill
- one example of professionalism
- one example of teamwork or communication
- one career possibility you may explore
- one person who influenced your thinking
- one question you still have

Real career exploration is not choosing one job.

It is learning how work, people, skills and pathways actually connect.
