INTERVIEW UNDER PRESSURE

Confidence · Storytelling · Adaptability · Professional Communication

ESSENTIAL QUESTION

How do I stay credible, clear and confident when I do not know exactly what I will be asked?

THIS WEEK

Last week, you built a Story Bank.

You identified real experiences that prove teamwork, leadership, reliability, adaptability, problem solving and communication.

Now you have to use those stories under pressure.

An interview is not about memorizing perfect answers.

It is about:

- listening carefully
- understanding what the question is really asking
- choosing the right story
- explaining your actions clearly
- showing what you learned
- adapting when a question surprises you
- recovering if an answer starts badly
- communicating like a prepared professional

PART 1 · BRING YOUR STORY BANK

Choose six stories from Week 9.

TEAMWORK STORY

_____

LEADERSHIP STORY

_____

PROBLEM-SOLVING STORY

_____

RELIABILITY STORY

_____

ADAPTABILITY STORY

_____

COMMUNICATION STORY

_____

PART 2 · BUILD A STRONG ANSWER

Use:

SITUATION → ACTION → RESULT → REFLECTION

Situation

What was happening?

Action

What did YOU do?

Result

What changed?

Reflection

What did you learn, and why does it matter now?

PART 3 · PRACTICE QUESTION 1

Tell me about a time you had to work with someone difficult.

Situation:

_____

Action:

_____

Result:

_____

Reflection:

_____

PART 4 · PRACTICE QUESTION 2

Tell me about a mistake you made.

Situation:

_____

Action:

_____

Result:

_____

Reflection:

_____

PART 5 · PRACTICE QUESTION 3

Tell me about a time you had to adapt quickly.

Situation:

_____

Action:

_____

Result:

_____

Reflection:

_____

PART 6 · PRACTICE QUESTION 4

Tell me about a time someone depended on you.

Situation:

_____

Action:

_____

Result:

_____

Reflection:

_____

PART 7 · THE QUESTION YOU WEREN'T READY FOR

Your facilitator will give you an unexpected interview question.

QUESTION

_____

My first reaction:

_____

What is this question really asking me to prove?

_____

Which Story Bank example could help?

_____

My answer:

_____

_____

_____

What worked?

_____

What would I improve?

_____

PART 8 · RECOVER WITHOUT PANICKING

Sometimes an answer starts badly.

That does not mean the interview is over.

If I lose my train of thought, I can say:

_____

If I misunderstand the question, I can say:

_____

If I need a moment to think, I can say:

_____

If I do not have the exact experience, I can say:

_____

PART 9 · INTERVIEW PANEL

You may be asked similar questions by people with different styles.

Notice what changes.

INTERVIEWER 1

Question:

_____

What did I do well?

_____

What should improve?

_____

INTERVIEWER 2

Question:

_____

What did I do well?

_____

What should improve?

_____

INTERVIEWER 3

Question:

_____

What did I do well?

_____

What should improve?

_____

PART 10 · WHAT MAKES AN ANSWER MEMORABLE?

Check what strong answers usually include.

[ ] A real example

[ ] Clear action

[ ] Specific detail

[ ] Honest reflection

[ ] Evidence

[ ] Strong communication

[ ] Relevant result

[ ] Learning

[ ] Appropriate confidence

[ ] No exaggeration

What weakens an answer?

_____

_____

PART 11 · NONVERBAL COMMUNICATION

Eye contact

What feels professional?

_____

Posture

What does confident but natural look like?

_____

Voice

What makes someone easier to understand?

_____

Pace

What happens when someone speaks too quickly?

_____

Listening

How can an interviewer tell you are actually listening?

_____

PART 12 · MY HARDEST QUESTION

The question that challenged me most:

_____

Why?

_____

The story I used:

_____

What I wish I had said more clearly:

_____

_____

My stronger second attempt:

_____

_____

_____

PART 13 · ASK THEM SOMETHING

An interview is also a professional conversation.

Prepare questions for the employer.

_____

Why would this help me evaluate the opportunity?

_____

_____

Why would this help me understand the role?

_____

_____

Why would this help me understand the organization?

_____

PART 14 · MY 30-SECOND CLOSE

If an interviewer asks:

"Is there anything else you'd like us to know?"

What would you want them to remember?

_____

_____

_____

PART 15 · FEEDBACK

One strength my partner or interviewer noticed:

_____

One answer that sounded credible:

_____

One answer that needed more evidence:

_____

One communication habit I need to improve:

_____

One thing I will do differently next time:

_____

WEEK 10 REFLECTION

BEFORE THIS WEEK...

The interview question I was most worried about was:

_____

NOW...

I can handle that question by:

_____

_____

One story I can tell confidently:

_____

One question I still need to practice:

_____

One way I recovered under pressure:

_____

One communication strength I noticed:

_____

One thing I need to keep practicing:

_____

FUTURE READY™ PASSPORT EVIDENCE

Save:

ONE STRONG INTERVIEW STORY

_____

ONE CHALLENGING QUESTION

_____

ONE RECOVERY STRATEGY

_____

ONE PIECE OF FEEDBACK

_____

ONE IMPROVED SECOND ATTEMPT

_____

ONE EMPLOYER QUESTION

_____

MY 30-SECOND CLOSE

_____

CAPSTONE CONNECTION

Keep:

- one story you can tell confidently
- one question that challenged you
- one example of recovering under pressure
- one piece of interviewer feedback
- one improved answer
- one professional question you would ask an employer
- one communication skill you strengthened

Interview confidence does not come from knowing every question.

It comes from knowing your experiences well enough to adapt.

WEEK 10 CLOSE

I WAS ASKED...

_____

I CHOSE THE STORY...

_____

I GOT STUCK WHEN...

_____

I RECOVERED BY...

_____

I CAN NOW EXPLAIN...

_____

NEXT TIME I WILL...

_____

LISTEN. CHOOSE. ANSWER. ADAPT. RECOVER.
