MICHELLE BOUDIN PREP — FIND YOUR VOICE UNDER PRESSURE

Pitch · Panel · Listening · Rebuttal · Professional Disagreement

ESSENTIAL QUESTION

How do I communicate what I believe clearly, listen to another perspective and respond professionally under pressure?

---

THIS WEEK

Last week, you practiced answering interview questions under pressure.

You learned that strong communication is not about memorizing perfect words.

This week, the challenge changes.

You will prepare for your experience with Michelle Boudin by practicing how to:

- make a clear point
- support it with evidence
- speak concisely
- listen before responding
- disagree without becoming defensive
- answer follow-up questions
- respond to another person's argument
- recover when challenged
- communicate confidently in front of a panel or camera

Next week, you will put these skills into practice on camera.

---

PART 1 · WHAT HAPPENS WHEN I FEEL PRESSURE?

When I know people are watching me, I tend to:

[ ] Speak faster

[ ] Speak quieter

[ ] Ramble

[ ] Forget what I wanted to say

[ ] Avoid eye contact

[ ] Over-explain

[ ] Become defensive

[ ] Freeze

[ ] Use filler words

[ ] Other: _____

What do I notice physically?

_____

_____

What happens to my thinking?

_____

_____

What helps me regain control?

_____

_____

---

PART 2 · THE 60-SECOND RESPONSE

Your challenge:

Communicate one idea clearly in approximately 60 seconds.

Use:

POINT → EVIDENCE → WHY IT MATTERS → CLOSE

TOPIC

_____

MY MAIN POINT

_____

_____

EVIDENCE OR EXAMPLE

_____

_____

WHY IT MATTERS

_____

_____

CLOSING SENTENCE

_____

_____

---

PART 3 · SAY IT OUT LOUD

FIRST ATTEMPT

Did I make my point clearly?

[ ] Yes

[ ] Mostly

[ ] Not yet

Did I use evidence?

[ ] Yes

[ ] Somewhat

[ ] No

Did I explain why it mattered?

[ ] Yes

[ ] Somewhat

[ ] No

Did I finish clearly?

[ ] Yes

[ ] Somewhat

[ ] No

What happened to my pace?

_____

What happened to my voice?

_____

What did I do with my eyes/body language?

_____

---

PART 4 · CUT THE RAMBLING

Write the message you want the audience to remember in ONE sentence.

_____

_____

Now identify anything in your first response that does not help communicate that message.

What can I remove?

_____

_____

What needs to become more specific?

_____

_____

---

PART 5 · SECOND ATTEMPT

Deliver the response again.

What did I intentionally change?

_____

What became clearer?

_____

What still needs work?

_____

Which attempt was stronger?

[ ] First

[ ] Second

Why?

_____

_____

---

PART 6 · LISTEN BEFORE YOU RESPOND

Strong communicators do not simply wait for their turn to speak.

Listen to another person's position.

What did the person ACTUALLY say?

_____

_____

What was their main point?

_____

What evidence did they use?

_____

What part do I agree with?

_____

What part do I see differently?

_____

What question would help me understand their position better?

_____

---

PART 7 · PROFESSIONAL DISAGREEMENT

Disagreement does not require disrespect.

Instead of:

"You're wrong."

Try:

"I understand your point about _____. I see it differently because _____."

WRITE YOUR RESPONSE

I understand your point about:

_____

I see it differently because:

_____

_____

The evidence or experience that supports my view is:

_____

_____

Does my response attack the person or address the idea?

[ ] Person

[ ] Idea

If it attacks the person, rewrite it.

_____

_____

---

PART 8 · REBUTTAL

A rebuttal responds directly to another argument.

It is not repeating your original point louder.

THEIR POINT

_____

_____

WHAT PART OF THEIR POINT NEEDS A RESPONSE?

_____

_____

MY RESPONSE

_____

_____

MY EVIDENCE

_____

_____

WHY MY EVIDENCE MATTERS

_____

_____

STRONG CLOSING

_____

_____

---

PART 9 · THE CURVEBALL

Your facilitator will introduce new information.

NEW INFORMATION

_____

_____

Does this information weaken my original position?

[ ] Yes

[ ] Partially

[ ] No

Should I change my response?

[ ] Yes

[ ] Adjust it

[ ] No

Why?

_____

_____

MY REVISED POSITION

_____

_____

Changing your thinking because you received better information is not weakness.

It is judgment.

---

PART 10 · PANEL PRACTICE

You are now speaking to more than one person.

PANEL QUESTION 1

Question:

_____

My response:

_____

_____

Feedback:

_____

SECOND ATTEMPT

_____

_____

---

PANEL QUESTION 2

Question:

_____

My response:

_____

_____

Follow-up question:

_____

My response:

_____

_____

---

PART 11 · BUILD ON SOMEONE ELSE'S ANSWER

A panel is not a collection of individual speeches.

Listen to another person's response.

Their strongest point:

_____

Something I could add:

_____

My bridge:

"I agree with _____ about _____. I would add..."

_____

_____

---

PART 12 · WHEN I DO NOT KNOW THE ANSWER

You do not need to pretend.

A professional response could be:

_____

_____

How can I acknowledge what I do know?

_____

How can I explain what I would need to learn?

_____

---

PART 13 · RECOVER WITHOUT APOLOGIZING FOR EXISTING

If you lose your place:

"Let me come back to the main point..."

If you need a moment:

"That's a good question. Let me think about that for a moment."

If you need clarification:

"Could you clarify what you mean by _____?"

Write one recovery phrase that sounds natural for YOU:

_____

_____

---

PART 14 · CAMERA AWARENESS

Next week, these communication skills move on camera.

When a camera is present, what might become harder for me?

_____

_____

What should NOT change just because a camera is present?

_____

_____

What do I want my body language to communicate?

_____

What do I want my voice to communicate?

_____

What do I want the audience to remember?

_____

_____

---

PART 15 · MICHELLE BOUDIN PREP

Something I want Michelle to help me understand about communication:

_____

_____

Something I want to know about speaking on camera:

_____

_____

Something I want to know about handling an unexpected question:

_____

_____

Something I want to know about communicating when people disagree:

_____

_____

---

MY QUESTIONS FOR MICHELLE

_____

Why do I want to know?

_____

_____

Why do I want to know?

_____

_____

Why do I want to know?

_____

---

PART 16 · MY PRE-CAMERA PLAN

ONE COMMUNICATION STRENGTH I WANT TO KEEP

_____

ONE HABIT I WANT TO CHANGE

_____

ONE THING I WILL DO IF I GET NERVOUS

_____

ONE THING I WILL DO IF I GET CHALLENGED

_____

ONE THING I WILL DO IF I LOSE MY PLACE

_____

ONE MESSAGE I WANT PEOPLE TO REMEMBER

_____

_____

---

WEEK 11 REFLECTION

BEFORE THIS WEEK...

Speaking under pressure felt:

_____

_____

NOW...

I understand that strong communication requires:

_____

_____

The strongest response I gave:

_____

The feedback that helped me most:

_____

One moment when I listened instead of preparing my answer:

_____

One disagreement I handled professionally:

_____

One time I adjusted my thinking:

_____

My biggest goal for the Michelle experience:

_____

---

FUTURE READY™ PASSPORT EVIDENCE

Save:

MY STRONGEST 60-SECOND RESPONSE

_____

ONE PIECE OF SPEAKING FEEDBACK

_____

ONE PROFESSIONAL DISAGREEMENT RESPONSE

_____

ONE REBUTTAL

_____

ONE PANEL RESPONSE

_____

ONE RECOVERY STRATEGY

_____

MY PRE-CAMERA COMMUNICATION GOAL

_____

---

CAPSTONE CONNECTION

Keep:

- your strongest concise response
- one example of listening
- one example of professional disagreement
- one rebuttal
- one moment when new information changed your thinking
- one piece of feedback
- one recovery strategy
- one communication goal for the camera experience

Your voice is not just how loudly you speak.

It is how clearly you think, how well you listen and how professionally you respond when challenged.

---

WEEK 11 CLOSE

I SAID...

_____

I LISTENED...

_____

I DISAGREED...

_____

I ADJUSTED...

_____

I RECOVERED...

_____

NEXT WEEK ON CAMERA, I WILL...
