FUTURE READY™

Week 2 Facilitator Guide

Discovering My Strengths

Discover Purpose. Build Skills. Launch Your Future.

Essential Question: What strengths do I already bring, and how can I prove them?

Week at a Glance

Element	Details
Portfolio Evidence	Strengths in Action Profile and Strength Evidence Tracker
Badge	Strengths in Action
Suggested Speaker	HR leader, recruiter, leadership coach, athletic coach, talent-development professional, or manager who evaluates early-career talent.
Industry Connection	How employers in healthcare and manufacturing recognize communication, reliability, adaptability, teamwork, and problem solving.

Before the Week Begins

- Review all five sessions and speaker/tour timing.
- Prepare student workbooks, slide deck, activity cards, timer, markers, chart paper, and devices.
- Confirm school-approved Google Workspace, AI, LinkedIn/professional profile, and HubSpot/classroom CRM access.
- Use only fictional or explicitly approved data in workplace technology labs.
- Arrange the room for movement, triads, and team work.
- Post the essential question and internship connection.

Facilitator Opening Script

Welcome to Week 2: Discovering My Strengths. This week is active, practical, and connected to your Semester 2 internship. You will practice, build, receive feedback, and create evidence for your Future Ready™ portfolio. The goal is not perfection. The goal is growth, professionalism, and the confidence to use what you learn in a real workplace.

Signature Experiences

Role Play

Answer “Tell me about one of your strengths” using STAR-L: Situation, Task, Action, Result, Learning.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Improv

Strength Switch: adapt when the required contribution changes mid-task.

Case Scenario

A healthcare clinic and manufacturing facility both need students to plan a welcome experience. Teams assign roles based on observed strengths.

AI Activity

Compare generic AI claims with evidence-based language. Label each claim Supported, Needs More Evidence, or Unclear.

LinkedIn / Professional Presence

Build a truthful headline and first four sentences of an About section using evidence.

CRM / Workplace Systems

Create a professional relationship tracker for speakers, mentors, and tour hosts using fictional or school-approved records.

Mission Card

Observe someone using a strength effectively. Record the evidence and impact.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Day 1: Strengths Are More Than Labels

Objective: Distinguish strengths, skills, talents, interests, and values.

Internship Connection: Students practice behavior that supervisors can observe: communication, reliability, teamwork, initiative, documentation, adaptability, or professional follow-through.

Materials

- Week slide deck
- Student workbook pages
- Timer
- Chart paper or whiteboard
- Markers and sticky notes
- Student devices when required
- Printed activity, role-play, case, and assessment pages

50-Minute Run of Show

Time	Segment	Facilitator Direction
0-5	Welcome / entry prompt	Greet students, display the prompt, and take attendance.
5-12	Teach the why	Connect the lesson to internships, tours, professional presence, or workplace systems.
12-30	Active experience	Strength card sort and Strength + Evidence + Impact + Future Use tracker.
30-40	Role play, improv, lab, or case application	Facilitate practice; pause, coach, and restart when useful.
40-47	Debrief and portfolio evidence	Ask students to name what worked, what changed, and what evidence should be saved.
47-50	Exit ticket / mission	Collect a written reflection and assign the Mission Card.

Facilitator Language

Today we are working on strengths are more than labels. Employers and internship supervisors do not only listen to what you say; they watch what you do, how you respond, and whether you follow through. During the activity, pay attention to the evidence you create.

Activity Instructions

Strength card sort and Strength + Evidence + Impact + Future Use tracker.

Debrief Questions

- What did you notice about yourself?
- What did you notice about the team?
- What behavior would build trust with a supervisor?
- What would you change in a second attempt?
- What evidence belongs in your portfolio?

Assessment Check

- Participates respectfully and remains engaged.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

- Uses the week’s framework or workplace system.
- Applies feedback during a second attempt.
- Connects learning to an internship or tour.
- Completes the workbook reflection and portfolio artifact.

Substitute / First-Time Facilitator Notes

Do not lecture for more than eight to ten minutes. Read the opening language, explain the outcome, run the activity, and use the debrief questions. Students may pass on sharing private experiences, but they must complete an alternative professional example. Protect psychological safety while maintaining participation expectations.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Day 2: Strengths Under Pressure

Objective: Observe strengths during uncertainty and teamwork.

Internship Connection: Students practice behavior that supervisors can observe: communication, reliability, teamwork, initiative, documentation, adaptability, or professional follow-through.

Materials

- Week slide deck
- Student workbook pages
- Timer
- Chart paper or whiteboard
- Markers and sticky notes
- Student devices when required
- Printed activity, role-play, case, and assessment pages

50-Minute Run of Show

Time	Segment	Facilitator Direction
0-5	Welcome / entry prompt	Greet students, display the prompt, and take attendance.
5-12	Teach the why	Connect the lesson to internships, tours, professional presence, or workplace systems.
12-30	Active experience	Lost at Launch challenge with changing instructions and observer evidence.
30-40	Role play, improv, lab, or case application	Facilitate practice; pause, coach, and restart when useful.
40-47	Debrief and portfolio evidence	Ask students to name what worked, what changed, and what evidence should be saved.
47-50	Exit ticket / mission	Collect a written reflection and assign the Mission Card.

Facilitator Language

Today we are working on strengths under pressure. Employers and internship supervisors do not only listen to what you say; they watch what you do, how you respond, and whether you follow through. During the activity, pay attention to the evidence you create.

Activity Instructions

Lost at Launch challenge with changing instructions and observer evidence.

Debrief Questions

- What did you notice about yourself?
- What did you notice about the team?
- What behavior would build trust with a supervisor?
- What would you change in a second attempt?
- What evidence belongs in your portfolio?

Assessment Check

- Participates respectfully and remains engaged.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

- Uses the week’s framework or workplace system.
- Applies feedback during a second attempt.
- Connects learning to an internship or tour.
- Completes the workbook reflection and portfolio artifact.

Substitute / First-Time Facilitator Notes

Do not lecture for more than eight to ten minutes. Read the opening language, explain the outcome, run the activity, and use the debrief questions. Students may pass on sharing private experiences, but they must complete an alternative professional example. Protect psychological safety while maintaining participation expectations.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Day 3: Tell the Story Behind the Strength

Objective: Communicate strengths through concise evidence.

Internship Connection: Students practice behavior that supervisors can observe: communication, reliability, teamwork, initiative, documentation, adaptability, or professional follow-through.

Materials

- Week slide deck
- Student workbook pages
- Timer
- Chart paper or whiteboard
- Markers and sticky notes
- Student devices when required
- Printed activity, role-play, case, and assessment pages

50-Minute Run of Show

Time	Segment	Facilitator Direction
0-5	Welcome / entry prompt	Greet students, display the prompt, and take attendance.
5-12	Teach the why	Connect the lesson to internships, tours, professional presence, or workplace systems.
12-30	Active experience	STAR-L interview rotations with intern, supervisor, and feedback coach.
30-40	Role play, improv, lab, or case application	Facilitate practice; pause, coach, and restart when useful.
40-47	Debrief and portfolio evidence	Ask students to name what worked, what changed, and what evidence should be saved.
47-50	Exit ticket / mission	Collect a written reflection and assign the Mission Card.

Facilitator Language

Today we are working on tell the story behind the strength. Employers and internship supervisors do not only listen to what you say; they watch what you do, how you respond, and whether you follow through. During the activity, pay attention to the evidence you create.

Activity Instructions

STAR-L interview rotations with intern, supervisor, and feedback coach.

Debrief Questions

- What did you notice about yourself?
- What did you notice about the team?
- What behavior would build trust with a supervisor?
- What would you change in a second attempt?
- What evidence belongs in your portfolio?

Assessment Check

- Participates respectfully and remains engaged.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

- Uses the week’s framework or workplace system.
- Applies feedback during a second attempt.
- Connects learning to an internship or tour.
- Completes the workbook reflection and portfolio artifact.

Substitute / First-Time Facilitator Notes

Do not lecture for more than eight to ten minutes. Read the opening language, explain the outcome, run the activity, and use the debrief questions. Students may pass on sharing private experiences, but they must complete an alternative professional example. Protect psychological safety while maintaining participation expectations.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Day 4: My Professional Brand Begins

Objective: Translate strengths into professional profile language.

Internship Connection: Students practice behavior that supervisors can observe: communication, reliability, teamwork, initiative, documentation, adaptability, or professional follow-through.

Materials

- Week slide deck
- Student workbook pages
- Timer
- Chart paper or whiteboard
- Markers and sticky notes
- Student devices when required
- Printed activity, role-play, case, and assessment pages

50-Minute Run of Show

Time	Segment	Facilitator Direction
0-5	Welcome / entry prompt	Greet students, display the prompt, and take attendance.
5-12	Teach the why	Connect the lesson to internships, tours, professional presence, or workplace systems.
12-30	Active experience	LinkedIn/profile lab, privacy review, headline and About-section draft, AI authenticity check.
30-40	Role play, improv, lab, or case application	Facilitate practice; pause, coach, and restart when useful.
40-47	Debrief and portfolio evidence	Ask students to name what worked, what changed, and what evidence should be saved.
47-50	Exit ticket / mission	Collect a written reflection and assign the Mission Card.

Facilitator Language

Today we are working on my professional brand begins. Employers and internship supervisors do not only listen to what you say; they watch what you do, how you respond, and whether you follow through. During the activity, pay attention to the evidence you create.

Activity Instructions

LinkedIn/profile lab, privacy review, headline and About-section draft, AI authenticity check.

Debrief Questions

- What did you notice about yourself?
- What did you notice about the team?
- What behavior would build trust with a supervisor?
- What would you change in a second attempt?
- What evidence belongs in your portfolio?

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Assessment Check

- Participates respectfully and remains engaged.
- Uses the week’s framework or workplace system.
- Applies feedback during a second attempt.
- Connects learning to an internship or tour.
- Completes the workbook reflection and portfolio artifact.

Substitute / First-Time Facilitator Notes

Do not lecture for more than eight to ten minutes. Read the opening language, explain the outcome, run the activity, and use the debrief questions. Students may pass on sharing private experiences, but they must complete an alternative professional example. Protect psychological safety while maintaining participation expectations.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Day 5: Build a Strength-Based Team

Objective: Use complementary strengths to assign roles and improve results.

Internship Connection: Students practice behavior that supervisors can observe: communication, reliability, teamwork, initiative, documentation, adaptability, or professional follow-through.

Materials

- Week slide deck
- Student workbook pages
- Timer
- Chart paper or whiteboard
- Markers and sticky notes
- Student devices when required
- Printed activity, role-play, case, and assessment pages

50-Minute Run of Show

Time	Segment	Facilitator Direction
0-5	Welcome / entry prompt	Greet students, display the prompt, and take attendance.
5-12	Teach the why	Connect the lesson to internships, tours, professional presence, or workplace systems.
12-30	Active experience	Healthcare/manufacturing welcome challenge, team pitch, speaker reflection, and thank-you draft.
30-40	Role play, improv, lab, or case application	Facilitate practice; pause, coach, and restart when useful.
40-47	Debrief and portfolio evidence	Ask students to name what worked, what changed, and what evidence should be saved.
47-50	Exit ticket / mission	Collect a written reflection and assign the Mission Card.

Facilitator Language

Today we are working on build a strength-based team. Employers and internship supervisors do not only listen to what you say; they watch what you do, how you respond, and whether you follow through. During the activity, pay attention to the evidence you create.

Activity Instructions

Healthcare/manufacturing welcome challenge, team pitch, speaker reflection, and thank-you draft.

Debrief Questions

- What did you notice about yourself?
- What did you notice about the team?
- What behavior would build trust with a supervisor?
- What would you change in a second attempt?
- What evidence belongs in your portfolio?

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Assessment Check

- Participates respectfully and remains engaged.
- Uses the week’s framework or workplace system.
- Applies feedback during a second attempt.
- Connects learning to an internship or tour.
- Completes the workbook reflection and portfolio artifact.

Substitute / First-Time Facilitator Notes

Do not lecture for more than eight to ten minutes. Read the opening language, explain the outcome, run the activity, and use the debrief questions. Students may pass on sharing private experiences, but they must complete an alternative professional example. Protect psychological safety while maintaining participation expectations.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Speaker Connection Guide

HR leader, recruiter, leadership coach, athletic coach, talent-development professional, or manager who evaluates early-career talent.

- Share one honest turning point.
- Explain a skill used daily that was developed through practice.
- Describe a mistake and professional recovery.
- Connect the lesson to internship expectations.
- Leave students with one action they can take this week.

Tour and Employer Connection

How employers in healthcare and manufacturing recognize communication, reliability, adaptability, teamwork, and problem solving.

- Research the organization before the visit.
- Prepare three questions connected to this week.
- Practice introductions and professional dress expectations.
- Log the interaction and follow-up task.
- Send a personalized thank-you message.
- Save the reflection in the Employer Tours portfolio folder.

Week Assessment Rubric

Criteria	Beginning	Developing	Future Ready™
Participation	Needs repeated prompting.	Participates with support.	Engages, contributes, and supports others.
Skill Application	Names the skill but does not apply it.	Applies with guidance.	Applies independently and adapts.
Professionalism	Follow-through is inconsistent.	Usually prepared and responsive.	Prepared, accountable, and reliable.
Evidence	Artifact is incomplete or vague.	Artifact is complete with some evidence.	Artifact is specific, polished, and connected to future use.
Reflection	Describes activity only.	Explains learning.	Connects evidence to growth and internship readiness.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.