FUTURE READY™

Week 4 Facilitator Guide

Choices Create Futures

Discover Purpose. Build Skills. Launch Your Future.

Essential Question: How do my habits and systems shape trust and opportunity?

Week at a Glance

Element	Details
Portfolio Evidence	Personal Reliability Workflow and CRM Practice Record
Badge	Reliable Professional
Suggested Speaker	Operations manager, project manager, HR leader, healthcare administrator, manufacturing supervisor, customer-success leader, or internship coordinator.
Industry Connection	Workflow, documentation, safety, handoffs, customer/patient experience, and continuous improvement in manufacturing and healthcare.

Before the Week Begins

- Review all five sessions and speaker/tour timing.
- Prepare student workbooks, slide deck, activity cards, timer, markers, chart paper, and devices.
- Confirm school-approved Google Workspace, AI, LinkedIn/professional profile, and HubSpot/classroom CRM access.
- Use only fictional or explicitly approved data in workplace technology labs.
- Arrange the room for movement, triads, and team work.
- Post the essential question and internship connection.

Facilitator Opening Script

Welcome to Week 4: Choices Create Futures. This week is active, practical, and connected to your Semester 2 internship. You will practice, build, receive feedback, and create evidence for your Future Ready™ portfolio. The goal is not perfection. The goal is growth, professionalism, and the confidence to use what you learn in a real workplace.

Signature Experiences

Role Play

Own It, Facts, Impact, Solution, Next Step accountability conversation.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Improv

Change of Plan: new deadline, absent teammate, technology failure, or changed customer request.

Case Scenario

An internship candidate misses an interview because the invitation was not confirmed, no reminder was set, and no follow-up occurred. Teams redesign the workflow.

AI Activity

Evaluate an AI-drafted apology or status update for ownership, clarity, privacy, tone, and next step.

LinkedIn / Professional Presence

Profile checkpoint: verify headline, About section, education, projects, service, skills, and privacy settings before tours.

CRM / Workplace Systems

HubSpot or classroom CRM lab: company, contact, note, task, activity, due date, owner, status, and follow-up using fictional data.

Mission Card

Use one reliability system for five consecutive days and record what it prevented from slipping.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Day 1: Professionalism Is a Pattern

Objective: Identify behaviors that build or weaken professional trust.

Internship Connection: Students practice behavior that supervisors can observe: communication, reliability, teamwork, initiative, documentation, adaptability, or professional follow-through.

Materials

- Week slide deck
- Student workbook pages
- Timer
- Chart paper or whiteboard
- Markers and sticky notes
- Student devices when required
- Printed activity, role-play, case, and assessment pages

50-Minute Run of Show

Time	Segment	Facilitator Direction
0-5	Welcome / entry prompt	Greet students, display the prompt, and take attendance.
5-12	Teach the why	Connect the lesson to internships, tours, professional presence, or workplace systems.
12-30	Active experience	Trust Deposit or Withdrawal movement activity and Professional Choice Audit.
30-40	Role play, improv, lab, or case application	Facilitate practice; pause, coach, and restart when useful.
40-47	Debrief and portfolio evidence	Ask students to name what worked, what changed, and what evidence should be saved.
47-50	Exit ticket / mission	Collect a written reflection and assign the Mission Card.

Facilitator Language

Today we are working on professionalism is a pattern. Employers and internship supervisors do not only listen to what you say; they watch what you do, how you respond, and whether you follow through. During the activity, pay attention to the evidence you create.

Activity Instructions

Trust Deposit or Withdrawal movement activity and Professional Choice Audit.

Debrief Questions

- What did you notice about yourself?
- What did you notice about the team?
- What behavior would build trust with a supervisor?
- What would you change in a second attempt?
- What evidence belongs in your portfolio?

Assessment Check

- Participates respectfully and remains engaged.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

- Uses the week’s framework or workplace system.
- Applies feedback during a second attempt.
- Connects learning to an internship or tour.
- Completes the workbook reflection and portfolio artifact.

Substitute / First-Time Facilitator Notes

Do not lecture for more than eight to ten minutes. Read the opening language, explain the outcome, run the activity, and use the debrief questions. Students may pass on sharing private experiences, but they must complete an alternative professional example. Protect psychological safety while maintaining participation expectations.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Day 2: Own the Mistake, Protect the Trust

Objective: Respond to errors with honesty and solutions.

Internship Connection: Students practice behavior that supervisors can observe: communication, reliability, teamwork, initiative, documentation, adaptability, or professional follow-through.

Materials

- Week slide deck
- Student workbook pages
- Timer
- Chart paper or whiteboard
- Markers and sticky notes
- Student devices when required
- Printed activity, role-play, case, and assessment pages

50-Minute Run of Show

Time	Segment	Facilitator Direction
0-5	Welcome / entry prompt	Greet students, display the prompt, and take attendance.
5-12	Teach the why	Connect the lesson to internships, tours, professional presence, or workplace systems.
12-30	Active experience	Accountability framework and role-play scenarios.
30-40	Role play, improv, lab, or case application	Facilitate practice; pause, coach, and restart when useful.
40-47	Debrief and portfolio evidence	Ask students to name what worked, what changed, and what evidence should be saved.
47-50	Exit ticket / mission	Collect a written reflection and assign the Mission Card.

Facilitator Language

Today we are working on own the mistake, protect the trust. Employers and internship supervisors do not only listen to what you say; they watch what you do, how you respond, and whether you follow through. During the activity, pay attention to the evidence you create.

Activity Instructions

Accountability framework and role-play scenarios.

Debrief Questions

- What did you notice about yourself?
- What did you notice about the team?
- What behavior would build trust with a supervisor?
- What would you change in a second attempt?
- What evidence belongs in your portfolio?

Assessment Check

- Participates respectfully and remains engaged.
- Uses the week's framework or workplace system.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

- Applies feedback during a second attempt.
- Connects learning to an internship or tour.
- Completes the workbook reflection and portfolio artifact.

Substitute / First-Time Facilitator Notes

Do not lecture for more than eight to ten minutes. Read the opening language, explain the outcome, run the activity, and use the debrief questions. Students may pass on sharing private experiences, but they must complete an alternative professional example. Protect psychological safety while maintaining participation expectations.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Day 3: How Work Moves

Objective: Map workflows and identify failure points.

Internship Connection: Students practice behavior that supervisors can observe: communication, reliability, teamwork, initiative, documentation, adaptability, or professional follow-through.

Materials

- Week slide deck
- Student workbook pages
- Timer
- Chart paper or whiteboard
- Markers and sticky notes
- Student devices when required
- Printed activity, role-play, case, and assessment pages

50-Minute Run of Show

Time	Segment	Facilitator Direction
0-5	Welcome / entry prompt	Greet students, display the prompt, and take attendance.
5-12	Teach the why	Connect the lesson to internships, tours, professional presence, or workplace systems.
12-30	Active experience	Healthcare appointment, manufacturing order, school event, or community project workflow map with disruption.
30-40	Role play, improv, lab, or case application	Facilitate practice; pause, coach, and restart when useful.
40-47	Debrief and portfolio evidence	Ask students to name what worked, what changed, and what evidence should be saved.
47-50	Exit ticket / mission	Collect a written reflection and assign the Mission Card.

Facilitator Language

Today we are working on how work moves. Employers and internship supervisors do not only listen to what you say; they watch what you do, how you respond, and whether you follow through. During the activity, pay attention to the evidence you create.

Activity Instructions

Healthcare appointment, manufacturing order, school event, or community project workflow map with disruption.

Debrief Questions

- What did you notice about yourself?
- What did you notice about the team?
- What behavior would build trust with a supervisor?
- What would you change in a second attempt?
- What evidence belongs in your portfolio?

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Assessment Check

- Participates respectfully and remains engaged.
- Uses the week’s framework or workplace system.
- Applies feedback during a second attempt.
- Connects learning to an internship or tour.
- Completes the workbook reflection and portfolio artifact.

Substitute / First-Time Facilitator Notes

Do not lecture for more than eight to ten minutes. Read the opening language, explain the outcome, run the activity, and use the debrief questions. Students may pass on sharing private experiences, but they must complete an alternative professional example. Protect psychological safety while maintaining participation expectations.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Day 4: CRM Lab 1: Never Rely on Memory Alone

Objective: Use basic CRM records to organize relationships and follow-up.

Internship Connection: Students practice behavior that supervisors can observe: communication, reliability, teamwork, initiative, documentation, adaptability, or professional follow-through.

Materials

- Week slide deck
- Student workbook pages
- Timer
- Chart paper or whiteboard
- Markers and sticky notes
- Student devices when required
- Printed activity, role-play, case, and assessment pages

50-Minute Run of Show

Time	Segment	Facilitator Direction
0-5	Welcome / entry prompt	Greet students, display the prompt, and take attendance.
5-12	Teach the why	Connect the lesson to internships, tours, professional presence, or workplace systems.
12-30	Active experience	Facilitator demo and student practice with fictional company, contact, note, task, due date, and activity.
30-40	Role play, improv, lab, or case application	Facilitate practice; pause, coach, and restart when useful.
40-47	Debrief and portfolio evidence	Ask students to name what worked, what changed, and what evidence should be saved.
47-50	Exit ticket / mission	Collect a written reflection and assign the Mission Card.

Facilitator Language

Today we are working on crm lab 1: never rely on memory alone. Employers and internship supervisors do not only listen to what you say; they watch what you do, how you respond, and whether you follow through. During the activity, pay attention to the evidence you create.

Activity Instructions

Facilitator demo and student practice with fictional company, contact, note, task, due date, and activity.

Debrief Questions

- What did you notice about yourself?
- What did you notice about the team?
- What behavior would build trust with a supervisor?
- What would you change in a second attempt?
- What evidence belongs in your portfolio?

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Assessment Check

- Participates respectfully and remains engaged.
- Uses the week’s framework or workplace system.
- Applies feedback during a second attempt.
- Connects learning to an internship or tour.
- Completes the workbook reflection and portfolio artifact.

Substitute / First-Time Facilitator Notes

Do not lecture for more than eight to ten minutes. Read the opening language, explain the outcome, run the activity, and use the debrief questions. Students may pass on sharing private experiences, but they must complete an alternative professional example. Protect psychological safety while maintaining participation expectations.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Day 5: Internship Readiness Simulation

Objective: Integrate reliability, workflow, communication, and CRM habits.

Internship Connection: Students practice behavior that supervisors can observe: communication, reliability, teamwork, initiative, documentation, adaptability, or professional follow-through.

Materials

- Week slide deck
- Student workbook pages
- Timer
- Chart paper or whiteboard
- Markers and sticky notes
- Student devices when required
- Printed activity, role-play, case, and assessment pages

50-Minute Run of Show

Time	Segment	Facilitator Direction
0-5	Welcome / entry prompt	Greet students, display the prompt, and take attendance.
5-12	Teach the why	Connect the lesson to internships, tours, professional presence, or workplace systems.
12-30	Active experience	Plan an industry tour, assign owners, create records, write confirmation, prepare questions, handle disruptions, and deliver a status update.
30-40	Role play, improv, lab, or case application	Facilitate practice; pause, coach, and restart when useful.
40-47	Debrief and portfolio evidence	Ask students to name what worked, what changed, and what evidence should be saved.
47-50	Exit ticket / mission	Collect a written reflection and assign the Mission Card.

Facilitator Language

Today we are working on internship readiness simulation. Employers and internship supervisors do not only listen to what you say; they watch what you do, how you respond, and whether you follow through. During the activity, pay attention to the evidence you create.

Activity Instructions

Plan an industry tour, assign owners, create records, write confirmation, prepare questions, handle disruptions, and deliver a status update.

Debrief Questions

- What did you notice about yourself?
- What did you notice about the team?
- What behavior would build trust with a supervisor?
- What would you change in a second attempt?
- What evidence belongs in your portfolio?

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Assessment Check

- Participates respectfully and remains engaged.
- Uses the week’s framework or workplace system.
- Applies feedback during a second attempt.
- Connects learning to an internship or tour.
- Completes the workbook reflection and portfolio artifact.

Substitute / First-Time Facilitator Notes

Do not lecture for more than eight to ten minutes. Read the opening language, explain the outcome, run the activity, and use the debrief questions. Students may pass on sharing private experiences, but they must complete an alternative professional example. Protect psychological safety while maintaining participation expectations.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.

Speaker Connection Guide

Operations manager, project manager, HR leader, healthcare administrator, manufacturing supervisor, customer-success leader, or internship coordinator.

- Share one honest turning point.
- Explain a skill used daily that was developed through practice.
- Describe a mistake and professional recovery.
- Connect the lesson to internship expectations.
- Leave students with one action they can take this week.

Tour and Employer Connection

Workflow, documentation, safety, handoffs, customer/patient experience, and continuous improvement in manufacturing and healthcare.

- Research the organization before the visit.
- Prepare three questions connected to this week.
- Practice introductions and professional dress expectations.
- Log the interaction and follow-up task.
- Send a personalized thank-you message.
- Save the reflection in the Employer Tours portfolio folder.

Week Assessment Rubric

Criteria	Beginning	Developing	Future Ready™
Participation	Needs repeated prompting.	Participates with support.	Engages, contributes, and supports others.
Skill Application	Names the skill but does not apply it.	Applies with guidance.	Applies independently and adapts.
Professionalism	Follow-through is inconsistent.	Usually prepared and responsive.	Prepared, accountable, and reliable.
Evidence	Artifact is incomplete or vague.	Artifact is complete with some evidence.	Artifact is specific, polished, and connected to future use.
Reflection	Describes activity only.	Explains learning.	Connects evidence to growth and internship readiness.

Future Ready™ © 2026 Jaime Lane. All Rights Reserved. Licensed to Ambassador Christian School for authorized pilot use only. No redistribution, resale, public posting, or reuse outside the license.